WELCOME

Although it's technically one of the smallest counties in the United States, Arlington is a green city and a walkable city, with modern high-rises that are clustered along the sparkling Potomac River shoreline. It has neighborhoods filled with contrasts—suburban tree-lined streets that give way to markets and bistros, and roads that crisscross at urban parks and green spaces. This friendly mashup is handy to navigate, whether on two feet, two wheels, or using Arlington's user-friendly public transportation—a system that seamlessly connects it to Washington, D.C., and the entire capital region.

Visitors blend into every neighborhood, joining locals posting Instagram-worthy pictures of pretty plates and colorful street art. Dog walkers pass by, some with kids in tow, meandering down broad sidewalks, looking into kaleidoscopic shop windows. Commuters stride from Metro stations into gleaming skyscrapers where entrepreneurship and innovation are the order of the day. Arlington is home to residents of every color, creed and kind, all relishing their access to the region's world-class museums and landmarks. No wonder organizations like Amazon, Deloitte, March of Dimes, Nestlé and many more have chosen Arlington. Come experience the energy and fellowship of this innovative and broadminded community. We're ready to welcome you!

EXPLORE ARLINGTON'S MEMORIALS

And Enjoy Views of Washington, D.C.

Air Force Memorial, Adam Brockett

- Theodore Roosevelt Island is a forested memorial to the American president who founded the National Park System. The trails around the island offer a peek at Arlington's skyscrapers, and across the river, Washington, D.C.'s Georgetown and Foggy Bottom neighborhoods.
- The Lyndon Baines Johnson Memorial Grove honors the American president and his wife, Lady Bird Johnson, who were dedicated to beautifying the country through conservation and urban renewal. This peaceful oasis offers riverside views of the urban landscape.
- The Navy and Merchant Marine Memorial is a tribute to Americans serving in World War I. The sculpture shares the shoreline with the Mount Vernon Trail and has unobstructed views of the city's skyline.
- Arlington National Cemetery memorializes military conflicts, presidents, Supreme Court justices and other notables. Arlington House overlooks a wide swath of Washington, D.C.'s significant landmarks.
- Located at the entrance to Arlington National Cemetery, the Military Women's Memorial honors and tells the stories of women, past and present, who serve in the United States military. It is home to the newly unveiled sculpture, "The Pledge," capturing a moment of mutual respect and love between a female dog handler and her Belgian Malinois.
- The Marine Corps War Memorial symbolizes the Battle of Iwo Jima during World War II. From this vantage point, three famous buildings line up in perfect synchronicity: the Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial and United States Capitol.
- The Air Force Memorial, with its soaring silver spires, stands above the Pentagon and offers panoramic vistas of Washington, D.C. and Arlington National Cemetery.

THE HOST WITH THE MOST

Virginia's largest walkable downtown offers unparalleled connectivity and transit options, is just minutes from DC and National Airport, and boasts nearly 6,000 hotel rooms and 250,000 SF of conference and dining space.

find lots to LOVE about ARLINGTON

ARLINGTON IS FOR LOVERS

The motto “Virginia is for Lovers” has been around for more than 50 years, and Arlington delivers with an array of romantic experiences. Toast your relationship at Ms. Peacock’s Champagne Lounge or Baba, a retro-chic speakeasy saloon with Balkan bites and craft cocktails. Become connoisseurs at a wine-tasting class hosted by Screwtop Wine Bar or enroll in Cookology’s “Crave: Cake & Sip” cooking class to master new culinary skills. Take in the glittering city skyline from Skydome, a rotating rooftop restaurant at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Crystal City. Pack a picnic and visit an Arlington park — we recommend the serene landscape of the Lyndon B. Johnson Memorial Grove or the Bon Air Park Rose Garden.

ARLINGTON IS FOR PET LOVERS

Arlington was ranked “USA’s Most Dog-friendly City” by Yelp.com in 2018. Rover is welcome to “Yappy Hour” at Rosslyn’s Le Méridien Arlington Hotel and to restaurant patios throughout The Village at Shirlington and other Arlington neighborhoods. Four-legged friends adore frolicking in the tumbling streams along the Potomac Heritage Trail and Potomac Overlook Park. Socialize with fellow pet owners at Arlington’s off-leash dog parks. Many Arlington restaurants are doggone friendly too. Find pups on the patios of Rocklands Barbeque, Paramount Café, and The Celtic House Irish Pub. Dogma Dog Bakery is the place to find nourishing dog treats.

ARLINGTON IS FOR FOOD LOVERS

Arlington has a roster of rock star chefs and notable restaurants. Chef philanthropist José Andrés showcases cutting-edge Spanish tapas at Jaleo. Top Chef’s Spike Mendelsohn serves handcrafted burgers and shakes at Good Stuff Eatery and gourmet pizza at We the Pizza. Chef Kevin Tien earned Food & Wine’s “Best New Chef,” and you can taste why at Hot Lola’s and Wild Tiger BBQ. Savor Louisiana-style cooking from Food Network’s David Guas at Bayou Bakery. Sichuan spice lovers adore Peter Chang, whose namesake owner cooked for the Chinese Embassy. Bobby Flay-slayer Victor Albisu sells authentic Mexican street food at Taco Bamba.

ARLINGTON IS FOR FITNESS LOVERS

Recognized as the country’s most walkable city and top biking destination, it’s no wonder Arlington was named “Fittest city in America” by the American College of Sports Medicine in 2018, 2019 and 2020. Arlingtonians are passionate about their car-free lifestyle and can navigate nearly every neighborhood on two wheels or by foot. Ranking as the fourth best park system in the nation, Arlington has a sprawling network of trails and bike paths offering safe and scenic places to exercise and explore. Start with part of the 18-mile Mount Vernon Trail, a paved path along the Potomac equipped with Capital Bikeshare stations at Theodore Roosevelt Island and Gravelly Point Park.

GIRLFRIENDS LOVE ARLINGTON

From shopping, to spas, to afternoon teas and outdoor adventures, Arlington is the perfect destination for a girlfriend getaway. Start at Fashion Centre at Pentagon City to peruse the posh shops under a soaring atrium, then splurge on high tea and champagne at The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City. Among several luxury spas in Arlington is Origins Thai Spa, offering full-service wellness treatments using traditional East Asian techniques. Stop to honor the women who serve at the Military Women’s Memorial, a landmark at the entrance to Arlington National Cemetery with panoramic views of Arlington and Washington, D.C.

ARLINGTON LOVES THE NIGHTLIFE

While away the evening at one of Arlington’s many rooftop bars—watering holes serving views alongside Instagram-worthy cocktails. Freddie’s in Crystal City and The Lot in Clarendon are beachy escapes, and it’s hard to beat the scenery and the tacos from the rooftop of Buena Vida Social Club. Heaters keep it cozy year-round at Clarendon’s Wilson Hardware, and Dudley’s Sport & Ale in Shirlington has a sprawling deck with picnic tables and bar bites. On chilly nights, take it indoors for live music and karaoke at Galaxy Hut & Spacebar. The Crystal City Sports Pub is a local favorite for watching sports, enjoying late-night munchies, and rubbing shoulders with some of D.C.’s professional athletes.

EXPERIENCE ARLINGTON’S AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE

Arlington’s historic sites provide context to the Black experience in America. Begin with The Black Heritage Museum of Arlington on Columbia Pike and the nearby John Robinson, Jr. Town Square, a soon-to-be completed centerpiece of the historic Green Valley neighborhood, settled by free African Americans before the Civil War began. At Arlington National Cemetery, learn about the Freeman’s Village, a community established to provide homes for emancipated and formerly enslaved people. Pick up a cemetery map to visit the final resting places of notables like Thurgood Marshall, Joe Lewis and Medgar Evers. Other local sites include the circa-1791 boundary stone in Benjamin Banneker Park, named for the Black surveyor/inventor who laid Washington, D.C.’s boundary markers. Arlington House, on the grounds of Arlington National Cemetery, is a former plantation that pre-dates the Civil War.

NEIGHBORHOODS

Ballston Quarter, Judy Davis Photography

BALLSTON

Ballston is a thriving urban neighborhood with innovative research agencies and high-tech companies. Wired for free public WiFi throughout, Ballston is home to the Northern Virginia campuses of The George Washington University, Virginia Tech Research Center and Marymount University, as well as the Arlington campus of George Mason University in Virginia Square. The modern village has the Ballston and Virginia Square Metro stops, an abundance of shops, restaurants and pocket parks like Welburn Square and Quincy Park. For travelers without a car, Ballston has a walkability score of 92! The centerpiece of the neighborhood is Ballston Quarter, a stylish indoor/outdoor retail destination featuring experiential hot spots like the Quarter Market food hall, Cookology, 5 Wits live-action adventures, and Instagram Alley with its funky pop-art backgrounds. Ballston Quarter is connected to the MedStar Capitals Iceplex, where fans gather to watch the Washington Capitals NHL hockey team practice. Located in Virginia Square is Arlington Arts Center, featuring working art studios and rotating exhibits.

DINING

Ballston features 70 restaurants in a five-block radius with everything from global cuisine to classic American favorites. Stop in for the all-day brunch menu at Ted's Bulletin or Russian/Uzbeki cuisine at Rus Uz, a family-owned café offering cooking classes for kids. SER Restaurant is an elegant place to share Spanish tapas, paella and pitchers of sangria. Celebrity chef Robert Wiedmaier showcases his Belgian heritage at Mussel Bar. For a night out on the town, raise your glass at Bronson Bier Hall, serving more than 250 craft beers, ciders, and spirits, or Grand Cru Wine Bar & Bistro featuring French American fare paired with fine wines by the glass. Savor the signature punch at Punch Bowl Social, with three-stories of fun including bowling and karaoke. Try Ice Cream Jubilee's variety of flavors made from all-natural, 18% butterfat grass-fed cream. Mingle with the locals in Virginia Square, where you can savor an adventure of Thai street food at Thai Treasure, or enjoy the granddaddy of Peruvian chicken joints, El Pollo Rico. Spice up your life with a Sichuan hot pot at Mala Tang, then join friends at Darna to share a hookah and listen to Middle Eastern beats. Steak lovers adore the prix fixe menu and unlimited helpings at Medium Rare. End the night with late night eats at Mario's Pizza House, a neighborhood institution.

CLARENDON

Clarendon is a hub of activity that brims with energy on evenings and weekends. This neighborhood is popular among merrymakers of all ages with open green spaces, lively bars, restaurants and cafes. Clarendon Central Park is a gathering space used for outdoor concerts and a seasonal farmers market. Challenge your friends at Bond's Escape Room. The neighborhood is also a shopper's paradise — check out The Crossing Clarendon anchored by Apple and Pottery Barn. Runners and outdoor enthusiasts will appreciate the personalized service at Pacers Clarendon, Formula Running Center and Orvis.

DINING

Clarendon has a host of hot destinations, including Buena Vida, a three-story restaurant and rooftop bar featuring make-your-own tacos and unlimited brunch. Two local favorites are cheery Ambar, known for a prix fixe menu of unlimited Balkan delicacies, and its sister cocktail bar Baba. Green Pig Bistro, showcases sustainable, rustic French cooking. The Liberty Tavern is a welcoming neighborhood haunt with wood-fired Italian pizza. Find flavorful Asian fusion dishes at Bar Bao and the Vietnamese Banh Mi at Four Sisters Grill. For dessert, treat yourself to the prettiest pastries at Bakeshop, gourmet milkshakes at Nicecream, or handmade chocolates at Artisan Confections. If you love the nightlife, Clarendon's got you covered. For great barbeque, award-winning Smokecraft's name says it all. Sample Polish cuisine, crepes and wine at Oby Lee Winery. Everyone loves the patio at Northside Social Coffee & Wine. Head to The Renegade to hear live music. Screwtop Wine Bar offers wine and cheese tasting for the aficionado, while Spider Kelly's beer garden entertains revelers with skeeball and darts. Relish Tex-Mex fare on Don Tito's rooftop deck, or if you crave a high energy evening under the stars, check out The Lot.

HOTELS

Clarendon is minutes from the Days Inn by Wyndham Arlington/Washington D.C., and a quick car or Metro ride to many hotels in the Courthouse, Ballston and Rosslyn neighborhoods.

COLUMBIA PIKE

Enjoy the multi-cultural vibe of this diverse neighborhood stretching along Columbia Pike – locals call it “the world in a zip code.” If you’re a culinary globetrotter or just love trying something new, check out the restaurants and coffee shops in Arlington Village and Westmont. The Black Heritage Museum has informative exhibits on the history of African American culture in the region.

DINING

to Thai noodle bowls. Begin the day at Idido’s Coffee & Social House for desserts, breakfast and tasty flatbreads. Sofia’s Pupuseria perfects its Central American grilled meats and seafood. Locally owned Bangkok 54 & Bar will treat your taste buds to well-seasoned Thai food, and afterwards, you can shop at their Asian food market. Sample distinctive Ethiopian cuisine and desserts at Dama Pastry & Restaurant. Family-owned Bob & Edith’s Diner offers all-day breakfast and late-night snacks. Find generously portioned Turkish plates at Atilla’s Restaurant or grab a booth at Caspi Restaurant & Lounge, and light the hookah. The award-winning Rincome Thai Cuisine serves up traditional curries, seafood and vegetarian dishes you’ll long remember. The ramen at Takohachi Japanese Restaurant always gets rave reviews. Treat yourself to a Bolivian, meat-centric meal at Pike Bolivian Restaurant with Karaoke on the weekends.

Set out to Crystal Drive between 20th and 23rd Streets to discover two of the region's most admired chefs, José Andrés and Spike Mendelsohn. Share the sophisticated Spanish tapas at Andres's Jaleo. Mendelsohn sells D.C.-themed slices at We the Pizza, and his Good Stuff Eatery features inventive burgers and milkshakes. The Stand in Crystal City Water Park sells hot empanadas to go from Peruvian Brothers. Newly opened restaurant, The Freshman, aims to be a community gathering space hosting guests from morning coffee through happy hour. "Restaurant Row" on 23rd Street has a collection of global eateries: highlights include the Eritrean/Ethiopian dishes at Enjera Restaurant; Greek home cooking at Athena Pallas; scratch-Italian at La Bettola Italiano, and flavorful soups and stir-fries at Urban Thai. Snack on a basket of wings while watching your favorite teams, or play your own games at the Crystal City Sports Pub. Bring the gang to sing Karaoke at Freddie's Beach Bar & Restaurant, Northern Virginia's only LGBT, straight-friendly tropical-themed restaurant.

PENTAGON CITY

Home to three major retail centers, Pentagon City is a hotspot for shopping and dining. This neighborhood is within walking distance of the Air Force Memorial, National 9/11 Pentagon Memorial, and The Pentagon. Fashion Centre at Pentagon City is an upscale mall connected to the Pentagon City Metro. Under its soaring atrium are more than 150 stores and restaurants anchored by Macy's and Nordstrom. Across the street, Pentagon Centre is ideal for bargain hunters, with Nordstrom Rack, Marshall's, Best Buy, Costco and more. Nearby Pentagon Row features a lively outdoor plaza with several local dining favorites and name-brand stores like Ulta Beauty and DSW Shoes. In the winter, the plaza is transformed into a huge ice rink.

DINING

Pentagon City is packed with fast casual and full-service dining options. In Pentagon Row, pick up spicy kabobs at Aabee Express Mediterranean, crepes and gelato at Bon AppéSweet, and creatively stuffed bao buns at Bun'd Up. Also in Pentagon Row is the family-owned Lebanese Taverna, featuring fresh-baked bread and traditional Lebanese cuisine, as well as an array of Indian-Himalayan specialties at Namaste Everest. Artfully presented sushi and colorful cocktails make Zen Bistro & Wine Bar a buzzy evening spot. Fashion Centre dining options include Yong Kang Street's spicy Chinese noodles and dumplings, gourmet street corn at Shuck Shack, and Matchbox American Kitchen + Spirit for a chef-driven bistro menu. Connected to Fashion Centre is The Ritz-Carlton Hotel's Fyve Restaurant Lounge, a popular destination for their elegant Afternoon Tea and signature cocktails by Head Mixologist Robert Taylor. ARLINGTON WITH KIDS

Wide swaths of green spaces, one-of-a-kind historical attractions, and innovative play areas, Arlington has plenty of bonding experiences for vacationing families.

Mosaic Park, David Moss at www.davidmossphoto.com

NATURAL WONDERS

Arlington was named the nation's fittest city because there are so many outdoor places to play. Ride a bike down the Mount Vernon Trail, a paved trail skirting the shoreline of the Potomac with spectacular vistas of Washington, D.C. The trail stretches from Rosslyn's Key Bridge and continues to Gravelly Point Park, where airplanes take off and land from Reagan National Airport. From the airport, the trail continues 16 miles south to George Washington's Mount Vernon. Families love exploring Theodore Roosevelt Island, a nature sanctuary honoring the president who founded America's National Parks. Visit Potomac Overlook Regional Park Nature Center for a ranger-led talk on native animals and rescued birds-of-prey.

ADVENTURE SEEKERS

Children love mastering new skills, and Arlington offers a hands-on challenge for the whole family. Earth Treks Climbing Yoga and Fitness Center teaches kids to maneuver rope courses and boulder climbs. Skate around the MedStar Capitals Iceplex, a practice arena for the Washington Capitals — you may catch the former Stanley Cup Champions practicing there and score a signed autograph. In the summer, rent kayaks or paddleboards at the Columbia Island Marina, and there's plenty of room to run at the adjacent Lyndon B. Johnson Memorial Grove between the Potomac River and Pentagon Lagoon. Challenge your kids' deducing skills at 5 Wits, Escape Room Arlington or Bond's Escape Room, with thematic escape rooms that require teamwork by the whole family. Ocean Dunes Waterpark at Upton Hill Regional Park has waterfalls, squirters and mini-golf for those hot summer days. In Crystal City, Long Bridge Park is a family-friendly spot to watch the planes and trains pass by.

AMERICAN HISTORY COMES ALIVE

Arlington's most notable attraction fills young minds with stories of bravery and sacrifice. Hop aboard an interpretive trolley tour at Arlington National Cemetery, with stops at the Kennedy Gravesites and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. See soldiers perform the Changing of the Guard and visit the Caisson Museum and Stables to meet the horses that serve in military funerals. Learn about the historic Freedman's Village, a community for previously enslaved people. Take the kids to Twilight Tattoo military and musical performances at Summerall Field at Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, and to see the Marine Corps War Memorial on a double-decker bus tour.

GET UP AND DANCE

Reward your kids after a busy day of sightseeing with a free concert under the stars at Lubber Run Amphitheater. Catch a local band performing at "Fridays at the Fountain" in the Crystal City Water Park. Introduce them to American classics played by the U.S. Air Force Band under the Air Force Memorial's three moonlit spires.

TASTES AND TREATS

Sample new cuisines at Ballston's Quarter Market, a vibrant global food hall showcasing local restaurants. Learn to cook comfort foods or try a cake decorating class at Cookology. Shop for books, and enjoy a kid-friendly meal at Busboys & Poets in Shirlington. Treat the family to a sundae at Ice Cream Jubilee.

The Westin Arlington Gateway is located in the Ballston neighborhood, just steps from the Ballston-MU Metro line. The hotel is just 20 minutes from Union Station in downtown Washington, D.C. and close to plenty of local attractions. Guests can visit the Kennedy Center, the Pentagon, the National Science Foundation, and plenty of local shopping and dining destinations. Arlington National Cemetery is nearby, and getting into DC to see the National Mall and other historic sites is a breeze.

MUST-SEE ARLINGTON

Here for one day? Get to know Arlington's top sights on this tour featuring notable landmarks, local eats and fashion finds.

The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery, Jake McGuire

9 a.m.

Start your day in Rosslyn at East

West Coffee Wine. Fuel up with their signature East West Breakfast — a heaping plate of eggs, cheese, meat, veggies and fruit.

12 noon

Inside Arlington National

Cemetery is the newly restored Arlington House, overseen by the National Park Service. Formerly the home of General Robert E. Lee and Mary Custis Lee, the U.S. Army seized the house when the Civil War began and turned the plantation into a military cemetery. The ranger-led tour explains how the property was also a Freedman's Village, a thriving area of community and commerce for African Americans in the 1860s.

4:30 p.m.

It's a 15-minute walk to the gleaming spires of the Air Force Memorial. The stunning, three-pronged structure symbolizes the jet contrails behind the Air Force Thunderbirds. The four bronze statues represent members of the Air Force Honor Guard.

9:30 a.m.

Walk to the Marine Corps

War Memorial, portraying a towering clutch of soldiers raising the American flag at the Battle of Iwo Jima. From this special vantage point, you'll see three of Washington, D.C.'s most famous buildings.

1 p.m.

Hop in a ride-share to Pentagon Row to try pillowy Korean-buns or rice bowl at Bun'd Up overlooking the Pentagon Row Courtyard. (The Courtyard transforms into a skating rink with dual-sided fireplaces in the winter.) Then, take a spin through Fashion Centre at Pentagon City with 150 stores and restaurants under a four-story atrium.

6 p.m.

Catch a ride to the lively Clarendon neighborhood for dinner and drinks at Buena Vida/TTT Mexican Diner, a three-story Mexican-themed restaurant and rooftop bar.

10 a.m.

Enter Arlington National

Cemetery at the Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall Gate. Follow the signs (or download a map at arlingtoncemetery.mil) to the Memorial Amphitheater, passing by the monument to the Space Shuttle Challenger. At the Welcome Center take an interpretive trolley tour to the Kennedy Gravesites, U.S. Coast Guard Memorial and Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Stop to see the Changing of the Guard ceremony. Visit the Military Women's Memorial near the cemetery's main entrance.

3 p.m.

Walk through Pentagon City's pedestrian tunnel to reach the National 9/11 Pentagon Memorial, expected to reopen in fall 2021 following repairs. The 184 stone benches honor the Pentagon employees and the passengers aboard American Airlines Flight 77 who died during a terrorist attack on September 11, 2001.

8:30 p.m.

After a satisfying meal, return to your comfy hotel room to take in the glittering D.C. skyline. Sweet dreams!
